

Julian Bond

BLACK HISTORY

by: Heiacynthe Caumban, Janet Chinaea, Travis Clayton

Reason for choosing this person

- He has been a driving force for social for more than 50 years- as a civil right leader, politician, scholar and writer.
- He is famous for Civil Rights and Anti war activism

BIOGRAPHY

- Julian Bond is a leader of American civil rights movement.
- He is smart and brave, because he led nonviolent student protests.
- He is the first African- American nominated as vice president of the U.S, but he withdraw his name because he was too young to serve
- He served 6 terms in Georgia senate in 1971-86.
- He is an educator. He educate the public in civil rights movement.
- He is a writer, he published A Time To Speak , A Time To Act
- He is a distinguished visiting professor at American University at Washington, D.C and Professor in history at University of Virginia.

The Timeline

- Birth date: January 14, 1940
- Marriages: Pamela Sue Horowitz (March 17, 1990-present); Alice Clopton (July 28, 1961-November 10, 1989, divorced)
- Education: Morehouse College, B.A., 1971
- March 1960 - Is arrested during a student protest of the segregated Atlanta City Hall cafeteria.
- 1960 - Is a founding member of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC).
- 1961-1966 - Serves as the communications director of the SNCC.
- 1961 - Leaves college and begins working for the Atlanta Inquirer newspaper.

-
- 1965 - Is elected to the Georgia House of Representatives. He is not seated because House members oppose his outspoken views against the Vietnam War.
 - 1966 – The U.S Supreme Court rules that the Georgia House of Representatives must seat Bond.
 - 1967-1974 - Serves in the Georgia House of Representatives.
 - 1968 - Is part of a challenge delegation from Georgia that successfully unseats Georgia's regular democrats at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago, Illinois.
 - 1968 - Is nominated as vice president of the United States. He withdraws his name because the Constitution's age requirement is 35 and Bond, at 28, is too young.
 - 1974-1989 - President of the NAACP Atlanta chapter
 - 1971-1979 - President of Southern Poverty Law Center

- 1975-1986 - Member of the Georgia Senate.
- April 9, 1977 - Hosts "Saturday Night Live."
- 1980-1997 - Hosts the show "America's Black Forum."
- April 2, 1985 - Is arrested outside the South African Embassy while protesting against apartheid.
- 1986 - Loses election for U.S. House of Representatives to John Lewis.
- March 1987 - Bond's estranged wife, Alice, makes public accusations that Bond and other Atlanta public figures are cocaine users. She later retracts her statements.
- 1990 - Is ordered to pay $2,000 a month in child support to Deborah Kaye Moore after acknowledging he is the father of her daughter, Mia Moore.
- 1992-2012 - Professor at the University of Virginia teaching courses on civil rights.
- 1998-2010 - Chairman of the NAACP.
- 2002 - Receives the National Freedom Award.

Today Bond is Distinguished Visitor Professor at American University in Washington, D.C. , and a Professor in the history department at the University of Virginia. He has received 25 honorary degrees.

FUN FACT #1

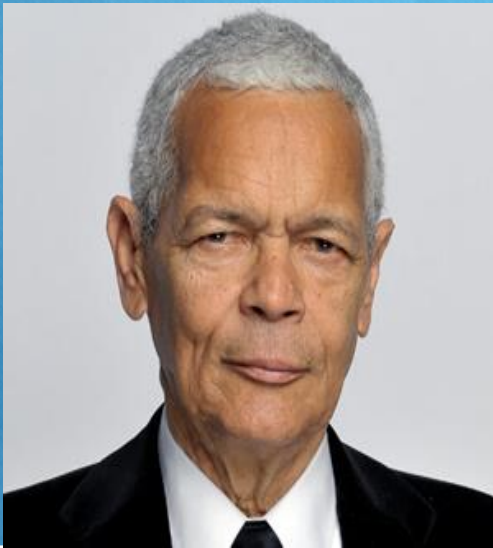

When Julian Bond was younger he looked like young Michael Jackson.

FUN FACT #2

- Julian Bond and James Bond has the same last name and also the same first letter for their for their first name.

References

- <http://www.brandeis.edu/richmanfellow/recipients/index.html>
- <http://www.biography.com/people/julian-bond-37971>
- <http://www.cnn.com/2013/02/08/us/julian-bond-fast-facts/>
- <http://www.naacp.org/preview/pages/julian-bond>